

SIGMA SI EXTINGUISHING STATE INDICATOR FOR KENTEC SIGMA XT / XT + EXTINGUISHING CONTROL EQUIPMENT

KEY FEATURES

- Sigma Si extinguishing state indicator for Kentec Sigma XT / XT + extinguishing control equipment
- It provides detailed status information

DESCRIPTION

- Provides detailed status information for Sigma XT / XT + extinguishing control equipment.
- All models provide high brightness, LED indication of only manual, automatic and manual, kept operational, disabled, imminent and released. Models are also available with fire zone indicators and fault indicator.
- For systems where local control of automatic, manual and / or manual extinguishing release control is required, units are available with these controls installed.
- All models have supervised inputs for remote connection of automatic / manual mode and latching switches.
- All units contain a large LED display that shows a countdown of the remaining time until the extinction is released in seconds.
- Feature
- High brightness LED
- Detailed indication of the status of the control panel
- Connection of monitored data
- The countdown timer shows the time remaining until the launch
- Connection to four wires (data and power)
- Robust and high quality housing
- Easy access to terminals
- Remote automatic / manual gate interlock (monitored)
- Remote retention input (monitored)
- Internal error diagnostic indicators
- Internal buzzer
- Certificate conforming to BS EN12094-1 when used with Sigma XT control equipment

SPECS

- Construction: 1.2 mm steel sheet
- Degree of protection: IP30
- Dimensions: 186 x 132 x 50 mm
- Weight: 1 kg